Board and Committee Activities

The Board's work is carried out at meetings of the Board where each Director has been provided in advance with a meeting agenda and all relevant background materials to inform them of the issues and suggested solutions to matters on the agenda.

A considerable amount of the Board's work is carried out by a series of committees each populated by a relatively small group of directors with expertise in the subject matter of the particular committee.

Each committee is peopled by between five and eight members and each is led by a Chair.

At Tarion these committees include the following: Audit, Consumer, Governance, Human Resources & Compensation, Investment, Nominations and Regulatory Affairs.

Board meetings are up to six hours in length. You will also be required to sit on at least one of Tarion's Committees. Committee meetings run anywhere from 2-5 hours depending on the committee and its agenda.

Board and Committee meetings are scheduled in advance of each new year by the development of a Corporate Calendar to ensure that each member can schedule his or her time to be available for these meetings.

Directors are paid an annual honorarium as well as meeting per diems for each of the Board and committee meetings attended.

Directors attendance for Board and Committee meetings is published in Tarion's Annual Report.

Relationship between Board and Management

The Board's role is strategic planning, succession planning, risk management and oversight of financial matters. Day to day business operations are the responsibility of the CEO and management.

Relationship between Tarion and the Provincial Government

Tarion is responsible to the Provincial Government for the administration of the ONHWP Act. The Ministry of Government & Consumer Services has oversight of Tarion's mandate and activities.

The relationship between the Ministry and Tarion is governed by a Letter of Accountability which confirms Tarion will, for example, produce annual business plans, regulatory plans, budgets, annual reports, participate in quarterly meetings, abide by governance requirements and hold an annual public meeting.
